Dear Dave:

Thanks for the two thank-pieces you sent me in January. It is good to know of your continuing interest in the welfare of our organization.

Though the Agency, like all big organizations, is subject to some managerial shortcomings, we have undertaken new approaches which we hope will lessen their number. At the present time we do not plan to embark on any additional programs.

When next you come to Washington, I suggest you arrange to chat with [redacted] and discuss some of the specifics with him. Bob has been looking into various programs designed to improve organizational efficiency.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

/s/ L. K. White
